

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

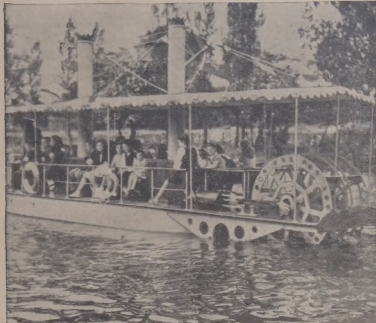

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

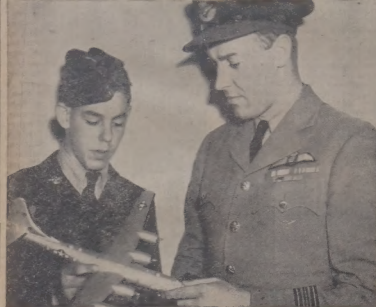

★ ★ ★ ★

MISSISSIPPI STYLE BOATING IN ENGLAND—Remodelling two wartime river assault barges in their spare time, two members of the Barking borough council in Essex, Eng., built the Phoenix to resemble Mississippi river boats. It is shown on its first cruise on the park lake.

PAIR DEAD, BOY HELD—Oliver Terpinen, 14, of Imley City, Michigan, broncs under the questioning of authorities as he is held in connection with the shooting deaths of four young companions, Barbara, 14; Gladys, 13; Janet, 2, and Stanley Smith, 14. The four youngsters were shot with a .22-calibre rifle while picking flowers. Terpinen was arrested while attempting to escape.

AIR CADETS MEET FOR INSPECTION—Knowledge of aircraft is demonstrated by Air Cadet Sgt. Roy Crisp to Sgt. Ldr. H. C. Vinicombe, while the latter was on tour of inspection of 201st and 238th Air Cadet squadrons in Toronto. Ceremonies were held in headquarters, Carleton Square.

UNDER PRESSURE—The Hungarian Socialists party designated Lajos Dinsay, defence minister, as its choice for prime minister to succeed the resigned Ferenc Nagy. Reports circulated meanwhile that the Communists, having forced Nagy from office, had turned the pressure on President Zoltan Tildy (shown above), in continuation of what some informants said was a determined drive to turn Hungary into a police state.

NEEDLE ARTISTS—Ingenuous quilters will have an opportunity to try their skill in creating a quilt in the form of a picture map of Canada for entry in competition for a $100 prize at the Canadian National Exhibition in August. Quilters, like Mrs. M. E. Port, 84, and Kathleen James, a teen-ager, are known for their artistry with the needle and patchwork designs. The exhibition, which will be held in Toronto, will be the first one since the war.

HALF-MILLION AT CATHOLIC RALLY—Catholic congress at Busto Arsizio, Italy, brought 500,000 persons to pay homage to the Madonna of Help. Cardinal Schuster addressed huge crowd from platform.

TRUCK DRIVER DIES IN HIGHWAY COLLISION—Peter Lorenz, 35, of Niagara Falls, lost his life in the head-on collision of these two trucks on No. 26 highway. Edward H. Dunn, 27, of St. Catharines, the driver of the 16-ton transport involved in the crash, was unhurt.

KILLED IN CRASH—Fifty-three persons were killed when an Eastern Airlines luxury liner crashed and exploded in a heavily wooded sector near Haver de Grace, Md. The dead included Nora Gillebery, student at University of Western Ontario, London, Ont., going home for a vacation in Lima, Peru.

OTTAWA RESIDENTS EVACUATE HOME BECAUSE OF FLOODS—Stepping off her front porch into a neighbor's boat is Mrs. Leopold Sarasin of Mattawa, where two dozen families have been forced from their homes by flood waters of the Ottawa river, at the highest ebb since 1928. Some of the houses have water up to the windows.

BEVIN'S FOREIGN POLICY UPHOLD DESPITE LABOR REBEL CRITICISM—More than 1,200 are attending annual conference of Britain's Labor party at Margate. Conference rejected labor rebels' requests to renege British support of U.S. aid to Greece and Turkey for close cooperation with Russia. Ernest Bevin, (left), defied the rebels and their criticism of his policies as foreign minister and invited either their support or their rejection as minister. He emerged from the debate the victor.

TAILORED-TO-MEASURE CAR—Disabled law student in London, England, had this car built for him. Known as the "Larnar" car, it is unique in design and adaptability. Its engine produces sufficient power to climb hills and to cruise along at speed of 35 miles an hour.

VICTIM OF BULLET—Provincial police are continuing their investigation into the death of Edward Percy Larnar, retired Oakville businessman. He was found shot through the head in his cottage near Fenelon Falls, Ont. A high-powered hunting rifle was beside him. Both police and Governor Dr. Greston Graham of Fenelon Falls ruled out the possibility that he had taken his own life.

LOOKS EASY—AND THEN SOME—Water ski champions Bruce Porter and Eddy Turner show their exceptional skill by using only one ski to skim over the water while holding the other aloft. Water skiing is fast becoming a top summer sport both in Canada and the U.S.

CAPABLE FARMER—First grade pupil Roden Rutledge, 8, of Newmarket, Ont., seen with his dog "X", operates a tractor on his grandfather's farm on Davis Drive. Working after school, he has cultivated 20 acres of land. His father says Roden can plow, harrow and cultivate as well as other farm hands. His dog, an almost inseparable companion, follows the tractor. Although "X" has been given away three times by Roden's parents, he has always returned.

